Better Trips for Better Cities

We continuously explore new innovations to make the experience of taking transit—from planning to payment—feel inviting, simple, and instantaneous.

White-labeled for transit agencies, the moovel mobility app offers riders a seamless experience as they get around their city paying for and boarding transit trips quickly and conveniently. Easy. Simple. All-in-one.

The moovel mobility app supports transit agencies as they grow to manage a wide range of transportation options within cities, expanding access, improving the user experience and ultimately increasing ridership.

Through the adoption of a mobile ticketing solution, agencies like yours are increasing ridership and acquiring a more comprehensive understanding of the rider experience. This is created through a partnership with you and moovel, focusing on utility and delighting riders.

Our vision is a planet without traffic jams. Join us in making this dream a reality.

Amplifying Ridership

Best Practices

Performance Marketing

Unlock in-app revenue and directly correlate it to the impact of your messaging and ads across multiple digital channels. Gain valuable insights, and increase ROI and app-based conversions.

Out of Home Advertising

Increase visibility, engagement, and ridership via your out-of-home ad real estate and measure the impact against your user's movement and actions within your mobile app.

Mobility Benefit Solutions

Help employers differentiate themselves with tools to provide employees with greater choice of how they commute through moovel's FareShare solution.
